As of July 1st, 2007, most residents of Massachusetts over 18 are required to carry medical insurance.

So far, the Commonwealth has sent you exactly one post card of information about what to do. We thought you'd like something more. Such as a one hour TV program, perhaps?

So, we got some volunteers together and made one. It's called: "Insurance, the Commonwealth, and You" Expert guests on the program explain the options available, in plain language!

Don't sign up for any insurance until you see it!

Call your local cable access TV studio for times, or order your own copy. For information, contact us:
